

Was / Were

Read the conversation and answer the questions below

DETECTIVE: Where were you last night, Malone?

MALONE: I was at the movies.

DETECTIVE: were you alone?

MALONE: No, I was not. My husband was with me. What is all this about?

DETECTIVE: There was a robbery last night at the First State Bank. Weren't you at the bank in the afternoon Malone?

MALONE: Yes, I was. There was a lot of people. So what?

DETECTIVE: Well Malone, Last night your car was at the parking lot near the bank.

MALONE: I know. We were at the movies watching a great movie. The cinema is near the bank.

DETECTIVE: Ok Malone, you may go home this time, but I'll be watching you.

Questions:

1. Where were Malone and her husband yesterday?
2. Where was the robbery?
3. Was Malone responsible for the robbery?